Employee Communication – 3/30/2020 PM

“Today, Governor Tom Wolf extended the closure of all schools and non-essential businesses indefinitely. He also extended the stay at home order for 26 counties in PA through at least April 30. This mimics the extension President Trump gave the country yesterday for extending social distancing efforts through at least April 30.

Our Memorial Medical Child Care Center will remain open under a waiver to offer care for essential workers. Schools are also in the process of moving towards a continuous curriculum online.

We are continually monitoring the situation and seeking funding to assist with the extended closure. We remain hopeful to get back to work when it is deemed safe. Thank you for your patience during this extremely challenging time.”
