Employee Communication – 5/14/2020

“I hope everyone got to enjoy the nice day we had yesterday! PennDOT released information yesterday regarding extending expirations. The following items have been extended to June 30, 2020: vehicle registrations, safety inspections, persons with disabilities parking placards, driver’s license, photo ID’s and learner’s permits. More information on these items can be found on www.PennDOT.gov.

As always, we will continue to watch for important updates and information that may be valuable to you and update you as we can. We hope you are all staying safe and healthy!”
