Employee Communication – 5/1/2020

“Governor Tom Wolf released the list of counties that will enter the yellow stage of COVID-19 recovery beginning Friday, May 8. Unfortunately, the counties we serve were not included on the list. Operations at The Learning Lamp and Ignite Education Solutions will remain as they are until we are given the go-ahead to move forward. The child care program at Memorial Medical Center remains open with reduced numbers of staff and children. The main office is on skeleton staff, with some individuals working from home on an as-needed basis.

If you have an unemployment question or need emergency food assistance please let us know. We will do our best to support you in this very difficult time. Be well and enjoy the sunshine tomorrow. Eventually, we will get through this.”

The mission of The Learning Lamp is to engage all children in the support they need to succeed.
